Greetings

Welcome to November's Newsletter, apologies for the lateness, December has been a busy month with all the Christmas decorations and planning. November was a packed month with entertainment and remembering those we have lost with our special remembrance service. We also celebrated some 90th birthdays, along with the usual activities of music, arts and craft and inviting outside companies in.

We always enjoy a visit from little movers- the children are such a joy. Derek always gets stuck in!

We had a clothes shop come and visit, this is a chance for residents to look through clothes and get a shopping experience , and everyone appeared to have a fabulous time, even the staff enjoyed the clothes. Some of our residents bought new clothes for Christmas, and our Joan bought something for her Granddaughter wedding.

We all enjoyed the fabulous Sam singing, she sings all the tunes from yesteryear and we have a fab sing along, and even Isabel will get up and have a boogie .

All the residents love Jessie coming to visit, they all enjoy a cuddle and you can see their faces light up when she comes

We had a full house for our remembrance service, we were joined by Annette who made a special visit for the occasion from St Michael's in Alnwick. The residents enjoyed making Poppies and colouring in the pictures for our display to remember and reflect on those lost.

Kathleen's 100th birthday ...

We will be celebrating Kathleen's 100th birthday next month with an afternoon tea, her Son will be travelling from Australia to celebrate with her.

Upcoming events

We have our Christmas Party on the 22nd December, starting at 2pm. We will be joined by Sam doing a singing set and also a first time singer Seven Swales, followed by a fabulous buffet - we will also be drawing tickets for our raffle - Have you bought your tickets? we have some amazing prizes.

We will be joined by David , our own Broadway singer on News Eve for an afternoon singalong and to celebrate the New Year in.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank you all for your continued support over the last year, and from us all at Summerhill Care Home we wish you a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.
